

CITY OF PALMER, ALASKA
RESOLUTION NO. 161

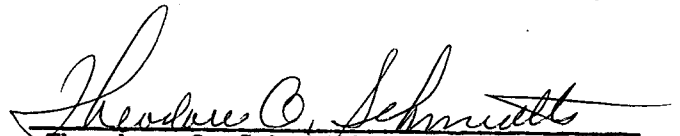

WHEREAS, the ultimate measure of a community's potential is the sum total of the spirit and industry of its citizens, and

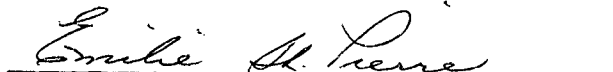

WHEREAS, the future development of this community is assured so long as its individual citizens continue their voluntary donations of talent, and the products of their industry:

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the City of Palmer, Alaska, honor and congratulate William H. Hermann for his example in generously expressing his faith by undertaking the founding of a community tourist information center and historical museum.

Publication of this resolution shall be made by posting a copy hereof on the City Hall bulletin board for a period of ten days following its passage and approval.

Passed and approved by the City Council for the City of Palmer, Alaska, this 10th day of January, 1967.

Theodore O. Schmidtke, Mayor
